

Lessons from Life

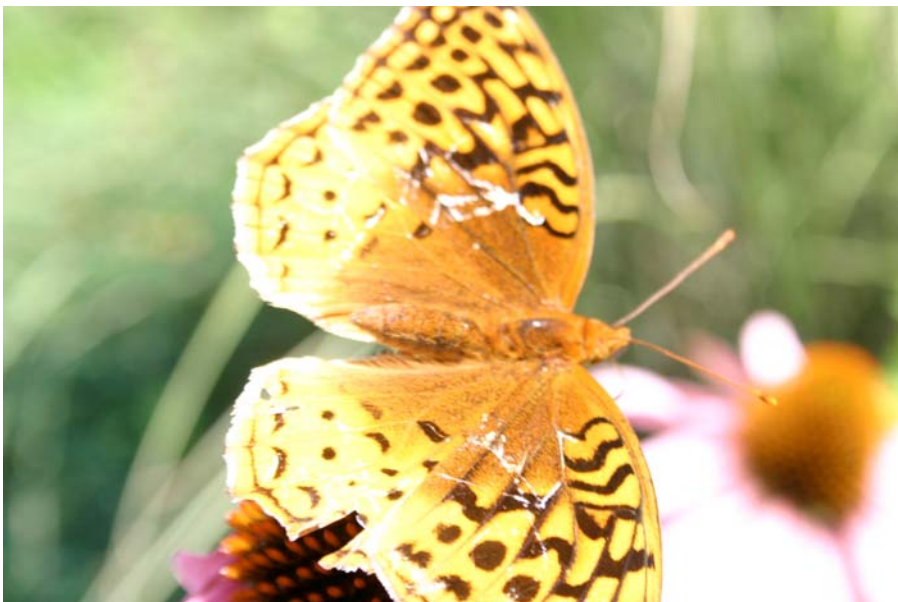

Photos & Words

Our only desire is to do our utmost to reach the sky...

*All things
in life deserve
to be treated
delicately,
gracefully
and with care.*

And all of this is ours to love and protect.

We can choose to be there for each other.

Smiles are like the sun.

*Our purpose is simple:
it is just “to be.”*

The world is big and full of wonder.

*It's simply a matter of what you see
through your own eyes.*

*Alertness to life is necessary.
Otherwise you may miss the most beautiful things that happen
in fleeting moments.*

Mother Earth is full of beauty and laughter.

We journey together.

We all have our place and space on blessed Mother Earth and we should all share and support each other.

Shall we dance?

*Size doesn't matter...love matters.
Love has no measurement and sometimes the smallest things
bring us the greatest love.*
